the Sacred Heart, Oldest Institution of learning on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. On Beach Boulevard, facing the Gulf, the school became college preparatory in 1923."

Chamber Of Commerce Drive For Membership

President of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Ruben Griffin, announced that an intensive membership drive for that organization is underway in an effort to gain the support of all business places within the area. Griffin said: "The effectiveness of the Chamber is in proportion to the financial support it receives."

Admittedly, during the past the Bay-Waveland Chamber of Commerce has been under financial stress and an all-out effort is underway to change that deficiency. "It takes everyone to build a better community," is the slogan of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and leading citizens are supporting the movement.

One hundred dollars per business membership is an investment designed to pay dividends to the entire community for the program of the Chamber includes assistance with business expansion and growth, improvement of the area, attraction for new industries, and better services for existing establishments.

Recognizing that the tourist dollars help, the Chamber plans to extend advertising and help to promote and stimulate progress in this direction.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce plans to make business memberships easy with payments arranged to accommodate the needs of members. That is, arrangements may be made to pay dues in monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annual installments. In addition to the excellent committee now functioning under the new set-up, the Chamber would like to secure a full time professional manager with the know-how and time to promote governmental affairs, communications, community and county developments and cooperate with programs and standards set by the International Chamber. Such an organized service could provide participants with ready information, act as a spokesman on the local level to relay matters related to business to Washington, officials, serve as a research department, and act as a business representative seeking new business and industry to help existing businesses and add to the local economy.

The Chamber expects to serve as a "Good-Will 111" ambassador pointing out Hancock County's many fine points including its culture and spirit.

The Chamber further plans to devote time to long range planning, to highway improvement, retail promotions, better transportation, agricultural diversification and bring about a better understanding of political affairs.

Mrs. Carolina Kiefer, in the office of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce located on Highway 90 in the Bay Saint Building, will be glad to assist interested prospective members with information and membership application forms. Business men are invited to make appointments through Mrs. Kiefer to discuss any phase of the program under the newly organized committee.

A statement made last week, explaining that it had no authority whatsoever to act until the developer himself brings the area up to standard where the county maintenance system can approve it.

Supervisor Delph Kollar suggested, "This Board should go on record to that effect, that legally we can do nothing at this time until the developer should own his responsibility." Kollar also told the group they had been, "taken to the cleaners".

He further explained that specifications and standards for the development had been approved before the present Board took office.

A gentleman walked into the Supervisor's trailer at this point, and Mrs. Bracelman asked, "Are you Mr. Glommeyer?" He replied, "No, ma'am, I'm Walter Phillips, but I do represent Mr. Glommeyer."

Mrs. Bracelman then began a description of conditions in her area. "There are drainage ditches with no culverts—the water just stands for days and days," Bracelman said he was unable to do anything about it.

A proposal to match local funds to a $70,000 budget earmarked for a park by the federal Bureau of Outdoor Recreation was discussed last Saturday night at Bay Junior High. An enthusiastic crowd of approximately 175 turned out for a presentation of the merits of a multi-sports park at Jackson Ridge, at a meeting sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association.

Providing at the meeting was Tommy Kidd, president of the Waveland Civic Association, who had just been elected to a post on the Bay St. Louis School Board. Moderating the program was Marshall Doyle, member of the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission.

Paul Vogan, a civil engineer with General Electric, Bay St. Louis, designer of the project, stated that about 800 acres were presently available for the project and hoped that about 170 more up to the area of the railroad tracks could also be obtained.

Vogan illustrated his remarks with an enlarged drawing of the proposed project. He explained that it will include a lagoon, and a lake with facilities for boating, fishing, swimming in fresh water. Also included will be an area set aside for camping, picnic grounds, and a playground. The total project will cost approximately $4.8 million, in phases.

Sponsor E. "Buddy" Madala, of the State Park System and Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, spoke of the desirability of the park for the area, and of the economic benefit to the Bay-Waveland community. He then quoted a study by Dr. James Copeland, of the University of Tennessee, to the effect that tourists from out of state spent approximately $107 million dollars in Mississippi. Tourists traveling from within the state brought the total up to $303 million dollars.

Next to speak at the meeting was Perry Nations, of the State Agricultural and Industrial Board, who quoted a heavy amount of specific statistics regarding the economic benefit of such a development, particularly to industry. He emphasized that a company wishing to locate a new industrial plant would be especially interested in the area in which the employee's family would be living.

During a question-and-answer session, Russell Elliott, chairman of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, stated that local funds would be used for the project partially, to purchase an additional 177 acres (at $2,850 an acre), in order to have the minimum 800 acres required for Federal acquisition. He also emphasized that, however, that this would involve no increase in taxes at present, since a budget for this project had already been set aside and is now in the second year. The total budget, he explained, is at one million per year. The first year of individual tax revenue had brought in $2,000, and approximately $65,000 was needed for the initial phase of the project.

Elliott was asked how the project would benefit the schools. He replied that the first money collected from the project would be put back into the school system. Asked what specifically he envisaged, he answered that it would be "the lion's share."

Jerry Lader, Bay St. Louis, made the statement that more money should be directly applied to the benefit of industry. He also voiced his support and pointed at the right side of the enlarged drawing of the proposed project. "Now I don't know how many people realize it, but this park is right up against the Gulfside Assembly. And I don't have anything against the colored people, we have come fine colored people in Hancock County. But if we build this park, it is possible that this will bring in a lot of undesirable elements and make the agitators stirring up trouble which I know none of us want."

Mr. Wilcox, of the board of directors of Gulfside Assembly, stood up and disputed the implication that Gulfside was controlled by racial agitators. He said also that the Sheriff could stand up and say that he had never had any trouble with Gulfside, and accused Lader of running a "trap line". An unfortunate series of shoving incidents followed back and forth, until Moderator Marshall Doyle asked Sheriff Currel to stand. The Sheriff, seated in the rear of the hall, stated, "All I'm going to say is—if you folks want to build this park, I'll protect it!" He was greeted with a resounding ovation from the gathering.

Madala emphasized that this was of the essence. "You know how the Federal government is about giving out money. You know how they can spend it, but when it comes, you better hurry up and take it or somebody else will take it."

Elliott stated he hoped to help from each corner as the Board of Supervisors could do to estimate, to reply to a question, to call the bluff on the ones who are just bluffing, and to use to replace the camp promoter's empty promises.

Vogan was asked about the project's feasibility. He replied that he was not sure, but he was sure that it was a good idea.

The Bay St. Louis City Commission on Tuesday unanimously passed a resolution supporting the Jackson Ridge Project.

Sheriff Confers With Contractor

Clean-up operation started in Bay St. Louis yesterday morning after a conference between the contractor, A. Gambel and Sheriff Fred Currel relative to the hourly wages paid for local trucks.

The contractor has agreed to increase the hourly rate on single axle trucks from $4.00 to $6.00 per hour and an increase for tandem trucks from $7.00 to $8.00 per hour.

Two other contractors who will operate in Waveland and a part of Bay St. Louis have agreed to the same terms when they begin working.

All contractors have also agreed to employ local trucks whenever possible. Any out-of-state trucks employed will be required to comply with Mississippi law and carry Mississippi license. The Sheriff said, Major Barker of the Corps of Engineers has assured Currel that he has enough personnel to supervise truck handling as there will be no property damage in the clean-up operation.

Mosquito Problem Expected

The Gulf Coast Mosquito Control Commission and the Hancock County Health Department fear an exceptionally large mosquito problem this spring and summer.

fool that without help of property owners, particularly housewives, the mosquito problem could easily get out of control.

Hancock County residents along the coast could help substantially to reduce a large part of the problem by doing that all tubs, buckets, bottles, tires, etc., are free of water and all ditches with standing water should be treated at least weekly with diesel oil, kerosene or pine oil disinfectant.

The hurricane created some unusual problems by debris stoppage of ditches, stump holes, etc. All official agencies are doing everything possible to clear this up but the help of the people is also needed.

A resolution was also adopted to commence repairs on the sidewalks and other improvements at Waveland, until a new elementary school can be built.

A scaled bid was accepted from Maloney Construction Company for the work.

Announce HUD Loan

The office of Congressman M. Colmer (D-Miss.) announced this week that he had approved this week's Housing and Urban Development public facility loan to the City of Waveland in the amount of $655,000. The project consists of a new sanitary sewer system including a pump station and treatment facility.

There is no public sewerage collection facility in the town of Waveland. Each individual household has its own septic tank. This provides a considerable health hazard, and the town is in a critical situation.

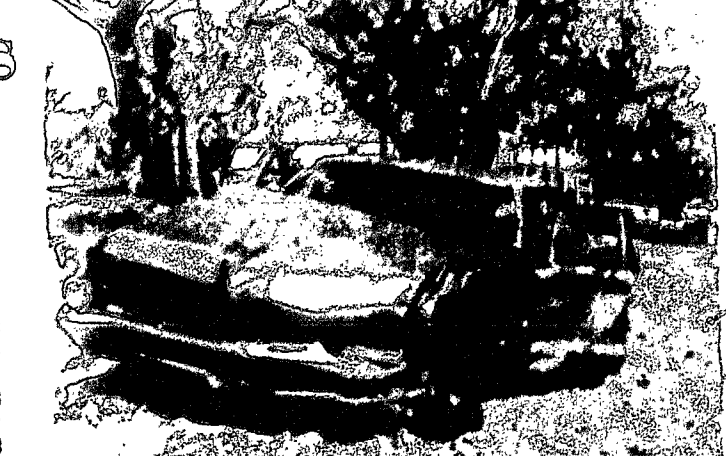

The project is being financed by the Federal Housing Administration and the State Development Administration. The project has been approved by the Federal Housing Administration.

Exceptional School For Exceptional Kids

The School for Exceptional Children which was conducted in Clomont Harbor until the hurricane, started the school year in a trailer at Lakonore. Two weeks ago the school was moved to two classrooms in the Valena C. Jones School in Bay St. Louis.

In its new home the school is much better off with more and better playground equipment and other facilities. There are now 17 students enrolled who are ably handled by the two teachers, Mrs. Arnett Giles and Mrs. Ruth Summers. More students would attend if there were better transportation facilities.

Procedurally, the students are near enough to walk to school and others are brought to school by the teachers.

The school operates five days a week, nine months of the year. Lack of funds prohibits

Purple Heart To Bay Marine

Necaise
Sergeant Gerald I. Necaise was presented the Purple Heart for being wounded while in action in South Vietnam. He also received the gold cross and medal from the South Vietnamese government for gallantry.

Necaise was presented the Navy commendation Gold Star medal for meritorious service while serving as platoon sergeant with Company B, second battalion, 1st Airborne Division, during this time, Sgt. Necaise performed his duties in highly professional manner, and superb leadership. He skillfully supervised the assigned task and provided his command with outstanding support.

He participated in seven major combat operations, distinguishing himself by his courage and composure under fire. As a result of his diligent and resourceful efforts the operational effectiveness of his unit was greatly enhanced.

Necaise is the son of Mrs. Mario Lee and the late Rono Necaise, Bay St. Louis. He is 38 years of age and is married to the former Miss Dale DeLoe.

GERALD I. NECAISE of New Orleans.

He is now stationed in New London, Connecticut.

Pfc. Mallini

Pfc. Thomas M. Mallini Jr., U.S. Marine Corps, has been awarded the Purple Heart by Brig. General Leo J. Dulich, USMC, for wounds received on Jan. 30 while on combat patrol, Hill 88, Da Nang, Vietnam.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mallini Sr. of Jordan River, Bay St. Louis, grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. John J. Forrell of Wiggins, and nephew of Mrs. Joe L. Deason, Gulfport.

He was initially treated for his wounds at a hospital at Da Nang and then flown to the United States Naval Hospital at Guam.

He was a former student at the Gulf Coast Junior College, Perlinston Campus.

Science Fair At Christ Episcopal

The public is invited to attend the Science Fair of Christ Episcopal School on Saturday between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, according to Peter P. Pelagios, principal of that institution.

On exhibit will be the works of students of both Junior High School and High School levels. Approximately 40 exhibits will be on display, according to J. D. Kinade, who is at the head of the Science Department. Prof. Kinade says the exhibits will be judged by well-qualified and impartial judges and the names of winners will be announced through the columns of the Echo. Guests are assured ample parking space and the Fair will be in the Brick Building.

BROWN AROUND TOWN

By Jim Brown, News Editor

THE DUNCE CAP—Apologies this week go, first of all, to Justice of the Peace Earl P. Langer, Hancock County, who I erroneously designated in last week's column as a deputy sheriff. He was formerly with the Sheriff's Department until a short while back when he was elected J.P. of Beat Four. The judge and I are good friends (and I hope still are), and we also have something in common. Buck (as he's known to his friends) is reputed to be the youngest judge in the country. We are approximately the same age, I believe, and I am probably the youngest News Editor in the U.S. Incidentally, Dot Leggett of the Daily Herald made a mistake a week or two ago about my title. She called me a news photographer! And I can't even take a picture of a roach from the moon!

Sort of, though, I really do hope Buck had all the success in the new Junior Deputy Sheriff's program he is organizing around the county, and I will look forward to covering some of the training sessions.

Quite a few people call up the news desk from time to time with news items, and I am very happy to get them. Some people are reluctant, uncertain if I would be interested. If it involves the local community, and is newsworthy—that is, if it has reader interest—the ECHO is glad to receive it. If it is lengthy, then it would perhaps be more preferable that the item be brought by the office (at 118 South Second Street, Bay St. Louis) or mailed in. The chances of it being published

TIME FOR NEW LIFE IN THE OLD SOUTH

New growth, new color and a soft new air spread across the South. It starts along Mississippi, Georgia and Florida shores, wings up through Alabama, catches the ocean breeze of South Carolina, caps mountains and fills valleys in Tennessee. And Southerners everywhere pick up the pace, weary of winter and ready for spring.

Your neighbors in the brewing industry are aware of the beauty of the season, too. We want to see nature kept natural (we support the Keep America Beautiful campaign). We want our region to thrive (our economic contribution helps). And we want our product to be a pleasant part of it all (we care where it's served).

 line Park. The News Editor's car, visible at far left, almost got stuck twice traveling this road. This photograph was taken on an afternoon when the sun had been shining all day.
 Also slightly visible in rear is a drainage ditch overflowing with rain water from a storm the day before. The water is deep enough, cold and roiling, for our children to drown in.

BRIDGE OVER Troubled Waters - This narrow span, which can only accommodate one car or light-weight truck at a time, is one of the main entrances to Shoreline Park. It is the only entrance or exit to the property of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Braselmann. There are no lights, and the bridge is said to be highly unsafe for heavy-duty equipment, such as is used by the Army Corps of Engineers. "It's more dangerous than the bridge at Chappaquiddick," says Mrs. Braselmann.

 And you know they advertise on television high, dry land you can walk on. They make those commercials in the summer.
 You ought to see it right now.
 They should call them water lots, not waterfront lots!"

Another resident added,
 "You couldn't give the land away now, much less try to sell it!"
 And another stated that there was a danger of children drowning in the ditches which do not drain. Chairman Elliott proposed that the ditches be filled pulling the ditches in the mon-eath. "But otherwise we're on a standstill," he concluded.

In other action, the Board requested Sheriff Fred Curot to investigate the reported proceedings of Mafia leaders in the area. The Board also made plans to confer with the Insurance Company Council regarding the third cancellation of a policy on the Hancock County Courthouse. Concern was expressed that the cancellation of insurance might affect the status of its mortgage.

The Board stated it had scheduled a meeting with the Governor at noon, and therefore would recess until Monday, March 23, at 10:00 a.m.

Sister Mary Ellen Of Kiln Is Honored

BY BOB HUBBARD

Sister Mary Ellen M.D.P.T., of Annapolis Parish in Kiln, Mississippi was honored recently by members of the parish.

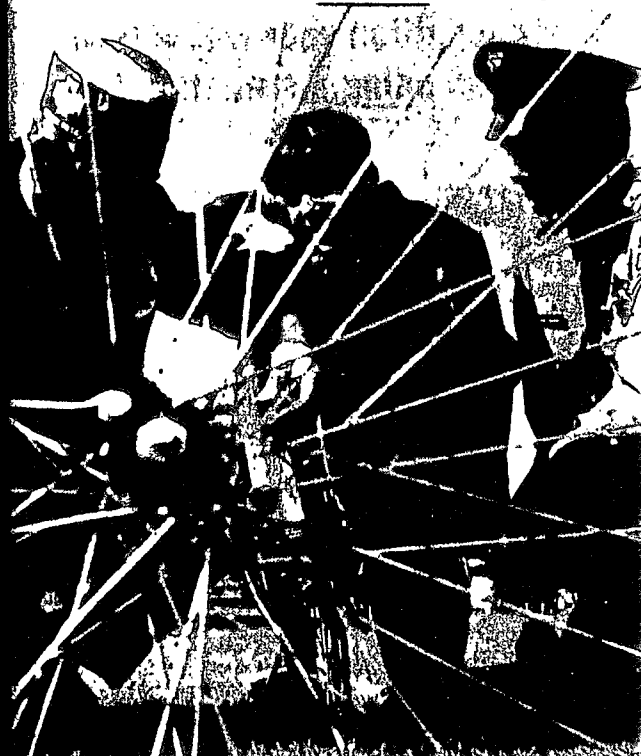

Sister came to Kiln in 1960 and since that time has served as both nun and nurse. It is with both respect and appreciation that parishioners paid honor to her. The spiritual and material services that she has rendered during this period have been an inspiration to all.

In honor of Sister Mary Ellen who was preceded with a gift of $700 and a plaque.

COND STAGE (S-N-18) of an Apollo/Saturn V launch vehicle was test fired successfully yesterday afternoon at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Mississippi Test Facility here. The stage, using liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen as propellants, was tested for a total of 370 seconds, a full-duration test. The S-N-18 will be used in the Apollo lunar landing mission scheduled for 1970. (NASA photo.)

LECTIVE TAPE, applied to the handlebars, front forks and rear fenders of bicycles by the VFW under a national "Like-A-Bike" program, is designed to make bike riding during dangerous dusk and nighttime hours. The tape--a reflective material used in reflective traffic signs and license plates--is visible at a distance of 1,500 feet in the headlights of an automobile. VFW posts apply the tape, which is made by 3M Company, to bikes free of charge.

Local V.F.W. Post To Offer Free Reflective Tape To "Like A Bike"

Free reflective tape will be applied to youngsters' bicycles in the "Like-A-Bike" program to be conducted here by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3853 according to Post Commander Albert Blohl, Jr., who is also director for the local "Like-A-Bike" program.

Beginning at 8:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, March 16, members of Post No. 3853, will apply strips of reflective tape to bikes at North Bay Elementary School. The tape will be put on the rear fender, handlebars and front forks of the bicycles, making each bike visible after dark from all angles. The highly reflective tape--the same material used in reflective traffic signs and license plates--is visible at a distance of 1,500 feet in the headlights of an automobile.

More than 12 million bikes across the nation have been marked with reflective tape in the VFW program, supported by the National Safety Council, the "Like-A-Bike" program depends on reflective tape donated by 3M Company, which has given more than 13 million worth of the material to date.

"Youngsters shouldn't be out bike riding after dark, but if they are, their bikes ought to have reflective tape," said commander Blohl. He pointed out that some 400 persons are killed each year in bike accidents, 68 per cent of them children aged 5-14. Another 30,000 persons are injured each year in such accidents. Four out of five fatal bike accidents occur at dusk or after dark.

"The extra warning provided by reflective tape can save a child's life," the VFW official said.

In addition to applying tape, VFW members will inspect the bikes for proper equipment: horn or other signaling device, headlight, rear reflector and functioning brakes.

Summer Village Meets In Pass

An Executive Committee Meeting of the Christiana International Summer Village (CISV) was held February 24, in the Pass Christian home of Miss Anna Livorice. The meeting was called by James Loftus, President of the local chapter of the CISV in order that the members might learn of new plans for future development from Dick Lane, National Executive Director of CISV.

Rev. Charles Johnson of Christ Episcopal Church gave the invocation. Mr. Loftus made a report of the local chapter and Mr. Lane said he was very much surprised and pleased at the attitude and zeal of the local chapter. He said it gave him a new picture of the people of Mississippi, and that he would convey those thoughts to chapters in other parts of the country, hoping they would benefit by what he had discovered here. Administrative and social matters were discussed in detail.

Engagement with Brenda
NOTES FROM PEARLINGTON
BY BRENDA ANDERSON
500-7070

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson of Pearlington celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last Wednesday, March 11.

A telephone survey is being made in the Pearlington area by the South Central Bell Telephone Company. I would like to commend them for the interest they have shown in our problem and for taking everything possible to correct the situation. They are more than willing to help. The lines that were down by Hurricane Camille and put back temporarily. And the bill water in the cable from Pearlington to Bilal. I am sure that the Telephone Company is doing everything in their power to make the necessary repairs, but until such a time, I would suggest to the residents that they call their monthly list of cable placed. Information that I have received says that some calls are being improperly credited to the wrong numbers, due to the Camille damage. So please check your calls and if you find any places report it to the Business Office.

On Tuesday night, March 3, the monthly meeting of the Pearlington Parent - Teachers Organization was held at Charles B. Murphy School. Plans were discussed and made for a Supper and Cake Sale on Saturday, March 14th, to be held in the school cafeteria. The proceeds from this event will purchase shares for the school grounds and pictures for the classroom. Volunteers are needed for that night and donations of cakes, pies, candies, etc. are being sought. Anyone interested may call 533-7874, 533-7390 or 533-7737.

The Teachers and Students of Charles B. Murphy will be taking a short vacation from each other today and tomorrow. The teachers will be attending the M.E.A. Conference.

A Happy Saint Patrick's Day to you all, from one who comes from a long line of Irish ancestors. March 17th is St. Patrick's Day, the day when homes are paid to St. Patrick, who converted Ireland to Christianity, about A. D. 430. This day is observed as a legal holiday in Ireland in commemoration of his death.

St. Patrick, legend says, drove the snakes out of Ireland, brought churches upon the omens, and performed many miracles. Other things associated with this day are: The wearing of the green, the Shamrock, the Blarney Stone and of course Ummichio. The Sham-

Passing of Miss Elsie Spori Ends Historical Family Era

Miss Elsie Spori passed away Monday, March 9, at 10:00 a.m. in her home at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. And so ended an era of five generations living in the family home at 504 South Beach. She was 70 years old.

Other members of her deceased family who lived in Nov Orleans and Bay St. Louis were her father, Christian Spori, and her mother, Louisa Spori; brothers C.A. Spori, Jr., Edward F. Spori, Sr., Walter J. Spori, and sisters Alica Spori, Hilda Spori, and Mrs. Joseph L. Killean, Sr.

Miss Spori attended St. Joseph's Academy for Girls in Bay St. Louis, and until her death, still possessed, for sentimental reasons, gold medals of excellence for penmanship, composition and music from that school. St. Joseph's was closed recently in 1936.

During the last fifty years, after her mother passed away, Miss Spori was the first lady of the big white house on the highest bluff in the Bay, and with her brothers and sisters frequently entertained friends of the family from New Orleans and all along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

During this time, she was a driving force in helping to start the first hospital at Bay St. Louis under the sponsorship of the Kings Daughters.

She and her family were ardent yachting enthusiasts, and in days gone by, were members and frequent visitors to the yachting clubs in the area. The old Bay Waveclad Yacht Club, which was destroyed in the 1915 hurricane, as well as the yacht club in Biloxi, Gulfport and Pass Christian, which have been destroyed by hurricanes and rebuilt again on more than one occasion. The Spori yachts.

Funeral services were conducted 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 11, 1970, from Jacob Sebeon & Son, followed by requiem mass at St. Francis Xavier Church in Metairie, Interment in Metairie Cemetery.

Corps Of Engineers Award Four Clean-Up Contracts

The award last week of four additional contracts boosted to eight the total number of non-traditional contracts for removing debris deposited by Hurricane Camille on private property in the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The Army Corps of Engineers, agents for the Office of Emergency Preparedness in contracting and supervising the huge cleanup job, said that today's awards totaling $174,930 added to the four contracts already awarded brought the total amount of contracts in force to $769,348.

All four of today's awards went to Mississippi firms, and three of the four contracts previously awarded, the Corps stated. E. J. Leland, Jr., and McKenna Road Service of Gulfport, bidding jointly, won three contracts, two for $44,394 each for tree trimming at Gulfport and Bay St. Louis and one for $90,030 for debris cleanup in the vicinity of Bay St. Louis, while the Tri-Way Construction Company of Collins successfully bid $30,500 to trim trees at Ocean Springs.

The award of two contracts has been protested by the second lowest bidder. Both protests have been referred by the Army District Engineer at Mobile to higher authority for a decision.

In addition to the two disputed contracts, three others out of the thirteen for which bids were publicly opened in Gulfport over a week ago remain to be awarded.

by the Corps of Engineers. In an unusual move designed to speed up the work, the Corps of Engineers accepted bids on two normally non-work days — Saturday, February 21, and Monday, February 23, a legal holiday.

The Corps of Engineers said that all bids should be awarded shortly.

Charles A. Matherns from Bay St. Louis has signed a football scholarship with the Pearl River Junior College Wildcat squad according to Head Coach John Russell.

Charles signed with PRC last season but later decided to give it up, but according to Russell he should make a starting position on next year's squad at either offensive guard or defensive line.

Labor Survey Thanks Public

The Hancock Labor Survey team announced yesterday that the public has been very cooperative during the man-power survey as the citizens have been most eager that could be of aid to the county.

For the past week our staff has devoted most of its time to application taking and gathering economic data. This information will be tabulated and put in book form.

One of our main purposes in taking this information is to show a true cross section of the labor pool in Hancock County. If one of the survey members contacts you please do your part and give the information asked for. Industry studying tentative plans for locating in Hancock County needs such information and with your help it will be available.

Applications for employment are still being taken. All unemployed persons or persons who are looking for better jobs are urged to spend five to ten minutes of their time to fill out one of these simple applications. These applications are available at the Mississippi Employment office in the Agriculture Building on Natchez Avenue in Bay St. Louis.

SEEDLINGS AVAILABLE County Agent John W. Smith announced Tuesday that there were slash pine, cottonwood and sycamore seedlings at the County Agent's office available for free distribution to those persons who might wish to set them out.

The slinging of the Alma Motor closed the ceremonies which were followed by refreshments for all members, their families and friends.

Miss Joan E. Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Hoffman (nee Joan Elliott) was one of the nineteen seniors inducted. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mildred Hoffman of New Orleans and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. (Doc) Elliott of Bay St. Louis.

HOUSE ON FIRE - The house of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Braselmann, of Shoreline Park, is now more engulfed in flames. Mrs. Braselmann complained last week to the Hancock County Board of Supervisors that the fire was started by a contractor for the Corps of Engineers in a nearby dump and got out of control.

NEIGHBORS VOLUNTEERED to assist Braselmann in an attempt to control the raging blaze, but before the fire was put out, the Braselmanns' house had burned to the ground. Thus far, she said, all efforts to obtain any recompense from the Corps of Engineers have been totally unsuccessful.

ALL THAT IS LEFT of the Braselmann house is ash and trash. Fortunately, they were living in New Orleans at the time of the fire which was more than a month after the storm, and were using the house for storage of valuable items, such as a washing machine (visible at left). Mrs. Braselmann said she had been unsuccessful even to get a promise from the Corps to clean up this mess.

March Proclaimed Fire Prevention Month

Herman Varnado, Hancock County Area Forester announced Tuesday that Governor John Bell Williams in calling attention to Mississippi's annual multi-million dollar loss to forest fires had proclaimed March, 1970, as fire prevention month. The proclamation reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, Mississippi is blessed with abundant forest resources which contribute to a better way of life by providing jobs and income, tax revenues, wood products, recreational benefits, and which provide food and habitat for wildlife, control soil erosion and collect and hold the rain for future use; and
"WHEREAS, it is the God-given responsibility of everyone to protect this valuable resource so that our citizens of today and future generations will also receive the multiple benefits of these forests; and
"WHEREAS, Mississippi annually loses more than $100 million in forest resources due to human carelessness or negligence in the use of fire in the outdoors; and
"WHEREAS, the month of March is historically one of the most destructive months for wildfires in Mississippi;
"NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Bell Williams, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim the Month of March, 1970 as in Mississippi; and, further, I do hereby urge that all Mississippians and visitors to our State join me in a grand effort to greatly reduce the needless waste of this, our most valuable renewable natural resource - not only for the Month of March, but forevermore...."

QUESTIONS ABOUT WELFARE

Q. Who runs Medicaid?
A. The Mississippi Medicaid Commission, 2806 N. State St., Jackson, Mississippi 39216, pays the bills and decides what services can be offered people.

Q. What does the welfare department have to do with it?

A. The welfare department certifies people for the Medicaid Commission and keeps up with persons who cannot get Medicaid.

Q. How can I get Medicaid?

A. If you get a welfare check, then you get Medicaid. Anyone who receives a check on aged, blind or permanently and totally disabled or dependent child gets Medicaid. At the present time the only other persons who can get Medicaid are patients in a hospital or nursing home who would be needy enough to get a welfare check if they left the hospital or home. Beginning on or about April 1, the following persons can get Medicaid, even though they are not welfare recipients:

(1) A child for whom a Mississippi public agency is paying the cost of keeping in a foster home or private institution.

(2) A teen-ager or other person under 21 years of age who is needy enough to get a welfare check but cannot get welfare because he is either too old for ADC in Mississippi, or is young enough but is not attending school.

A yellow Medicaid identification card went out in the mails to every welfare recipient. The other people mentioned above who made application and were certified at the welfare department received cards. This card has your name, address and proof that you can get Medicaid. Be sure to take this card with you when you need services such as a doctor, hospital care and the many other benefits. Show this card to the person in charge and it will be used so that you will get the medical care you need. If you feel that you should get Medicaid, you need to go to your local welfare office and give them the information to see if you can be certified for Medicaid.

Q. How much Medicaid care can I get each year, say from hospital or doctor?

A. During the fiscal year (which runs from July 1 to June 30 of the next year) your Medicaid medical services will include:

(1) Skilled nursing home services up to 90 days per year. Your doctor can ask the Medicaid Commission to give you more time if you need it.

(2) Hospital care up to 20 days per year. Your doctor can ask the Medicaid Commission for another 20 days if necessary.

(3) Outpatient hospital services up to 30 visits per year.

Payment for such services are limited as follows: hospital visits up to one inpatient visit daily; skilled nursing home visits up to 30 visits per year in the hospital or nursing home; doctor's office (routine urinalysis, home visits, home visits, blood and blood glucose).

(5) Periodic screening and diagnostic services for persons under age 21 through the State Board of Health.

(6) Laboratory services performed on an outpatient basis by a certified independent laboratory. Laboratory services may also be obtained as an outpatient hospital service.

(7) Care and services provided in Christian Science Sanatoria operated by, or listed and certified by, the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass., limited to 10 days per year.

resounding reasons
why you should buy a new Chevrolet instead of a new something else:

- 1 Higher resale value. Year after year. No other car in Chevrolet's field gives you as much back on your initial investment.
- 2 Deep down value. Exclusives like flush-and-dry rocker panels and set of fenders keep Chevrolet looking good longer.
- 3 Smooth, smooth ride. Because of Chevrolet's computer selected spring Full Coil suspension and advanced body mounting system.
- 4 Impressive styling. The impression is that it's an expensive car, if you want to make an impression.
- 5 Massive interiors. Result? Room to stretch out or to sit tall. Chevrolet has more front leg room than any other car in its field.
- 6 Side-guard beams. Chevrolet puts more between you and the curb. Steel beams built into every door.
- 7 A finish that lasts. It's unfortunate other cars in Chevy's field don't have a Magic-Mirror finish because it sure keeps its shine.
- 8 Exceptional engines. Chevrolet's standard 350-cubic-inch V8 runs on regular fuel. Plus there are five more engines available.
- 9 Tremendous selection. Of colors. Of accessories. Of engines. Of models. Of fabrics. And of models. There are nine big Chevrolets alone.
- 10 America's favorite. Something a new "something else" can't challenge. Actions speak louder than words, doesn't this say something to you?

Putting you first, keeps us first.
